Special Dispatch.

Dallas, Tex., March 10.—These are the terms of settlement of the fraternal fight between Texas Democrats:

"Whereas a serious division exists among Democrats in Texas, and it is to the interest of the party and of good government that such division should be adjusted and the party reunited upon the basis of fraternal union, involving no sacrifice of principle on the part of any Democrat nor the imposition of any terms calculated to bring humiliation; therefore be it

Resolved, that we most heartily favor a reunion of the party, and while this committee does not assume to frame or dictate a platform, yet for the purpose of reunion we recommend as a basis of adjustment and settlement of all differences honorably:

1. We reiterate our endorsement of the national platform adopted at Chicago in 1892 as a true expression of Democratic faith and stand as a unit ready to second the efforts of our Democratic president and congress in the execution of the demands of said platform.

2. We condemn the platform and principles of the Republican and Populist or people's party, as essentially inimical to Democracy, and destructive to free government.

3. We propose that all primaries and conventions to be held in 1894 be convened and conducted on the basis of the vote for the Democratic presidential elector in 1892, and no person who was then of age and did not so vote, unless prevented by sickness, absence or other good cause, and no person who will not pledge himself to abide by the action of the state convention as assembled, shall be allowed to participate in the primaries.

4. Resolved, that in order to unify the machinery of the party in the state, it is agreed that all counties in which there may exist two Democratic county or precinct committees, that committee which was created by the regular Democratic county convention shall constitute the only recognized county and precinct Democratic committee, and all appointments of county chairmen made by either state executive committee be, and the same be hereby revoked.

5. Upon the adoption of the basis of settlement agreed upon by both Democratic state executive committees, Chairman Matlock and his committee will send a public address to the Democrats of Texas who supported the Turner hall ticket, advising them of the settlement made, and that in pursuance of said settlement no call for a state convention will be issued by his committee, and that said committee is dissolved. That the call of Chairman Baker and his committee is the authorized call of the regular, united Democracy of Texas, and it is urged upon all members of the party to respond to said call in a spirit of Democratic brotherhood, and to unite with all good Democrats in the primaries and conventions in committing the party and promoting its success in reconstituting the true principles of Democratic government.

At 11:30 tonight, after a session of the full committee lasting for two and a half hours, Chairman Baker put the question of the adjournment of the party of the subcommittee emplaced above, and it was voted 10 for 18 to 2. The report had already been adopted by chairman of the Clark committee, which voted unanimously upon the return of the conference committee, without any discussion of the matter.

Great crowds had assembled in the corridors and lobbies of the Oriental hotel and when the issue was carried before the entire Baker committee, the cheering was unanimous, hate and animosity were thrown aside and friends met in their stream of joy.

The flow of victory began. Col. Jake Hodges made a speech to the men. He was followed by Dr. W. W. Hogg and then came E. L. Anthony of Miami. It was agreed to lead out Governor Hogg as spokesman to the audience.

He declared that the action of the committee would be endorsed by the united Democracy of Texas, and that the cause should be vigorous. The issue had decided the Democracy had been defeated and he trusted that his men would reign throughout in the future.

The call of the Baker committee raised the question of a state convention for the purpose of settling the affairs of the party.

A subcommittee, with R. M. Johnson as chairman, was appointed to present the above resolution to the Clark committee, and to report back at 10 o'clock.

The full subcommittee of the state executive committee appointed to meet the Clark committee at the parlor of the Oriental at 2 o'clock, was as follows: G. W. Johnson, R. W. Clayton, M. J.

Moore, J. T. Craddock, O. H. Colquitt, A. W. McElveen.

The subcommittee appointed by Chairman Matlock to confer with the Baker subcommittee this afternoon is composed of Chairman Matlock, J. D. Piles, B. H. Paddack, W. A. Kimball, Jonathan Lane, F. S. Connor, Wm. P. Colquitt.

At 2 o'clock the subcommittee and Messrs. Baker and Matlock were in conference in the parlor of the Oriental, and remained as session until 5 p.m., when adjourned. It was agreed that no unisoned than an amicable understanding had been arrived at. The propositions submitted by the regulars were agreed to with the exception of the paragraph relating to the judicial administration, which was changed as follows:

"We endorse the national platform and the efforts of President Cleveland and a Democratic congress to carry out the pledges of the Chicago convention."

This was referred to the Matlock committee and adopted unanimously. The Baker subcommittee formed a different slate of affairs when it reported. Members of the committee objected to any reference of endorsement of the national administration. Those opposed to the resolutions declared emphatically that it was not the duty of a state Democratic committee to endorse any Democratic office holder. At 7:30 p.m. the Baker committee adjourned until 9 o'clock.

Among the leading Democrats in the city were:

Charles Calhoun, attorney-general and candidate for governor; Hon. M. M. Crane, candidate for attorney-general; Horace Cane of Mineral Wells; J. O. Terrell of Kaufman; L. H. Foster and John John H. Reagan of the national administration; Judge Felix McCord, candidate for U. S. Senator; T. C. Taylor of Gainesville; Col. B. P. Parent of Waco; Governor H. Schlesinger of Cisco, and Judge Bramlette of Waxahachie, candidate for land commissioner; Jeff McLemore of Mt. Vernon; G. W. Smith, secretary of state; B. M.
